ABOUT THE STATE

For the ninth time, the annual Vermont State tennis tournament will be held on the courts of the Old Pine Golf club at St. Johnsbury beginning August

At a largely attended town meeting at Chester this week, it was voted to appropriate $12,000 toward improve ments on the high school building and to erect an additional one for school ourposes. It was also voted to exempt from taxation for five years the Ches-ter Bobbin, Spool & Shuttle Supply com-pany which it is expected will employ etween 25 and 40 people.

Judge W. W. Miles directed a verdict for the defense this week in the case of the Caledonia county grammar school vs. George T. Howard of Craftsbury and S. Blanche Kent of Hardwick involving title to land, the charter for which was granted in 1781. This was an action of ejestment to recover pos-session of land in Hardwick, an outline of the case being given in Thursday's

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean of Cheny, Wash, was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that haffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me, and now I am as well as ever." For lung trouble, bronchifis, coughs and colds, asthma, croup and whooping cough it's supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Red Cross Pharmacy.
